There was one addition by letter to the Sedon M. E. Church at last night's service.

Ben Hook's big tobacco barn at Plumville burned Saturday night, entailing considerable loss.

The remains of Albert Adamson, shot by William Rairdon in Cincinnati, were shipped yesterday to Manchester for burial.

Mr. Jessie Collins and Miss Maggie Collins, both of Mason county, were married Saturday at the County Clerk's office, Judge C. D. Newell officiating.

John Handlin, who was to be tried at Huntington for stealing a $400 diamond pin from A. P. Gooding of Lexington, skipped out and forfeited his $500 bond.

Clarence White is in jail to explain why he stole $11 from Mrs. J. W. Lee, after having been forgiven for filching smaller sums on former occasions.

One of Ashland's most flourishing establishments is the Horrocks Five and Ten Cent Store conducted by Miss Bessie Lee Horrocks, a former Maysville lady.

Mr. John Mitchell and Miss Mary Alice Ham, both of Mason county, were married this morning at the home of Mr. Charles Williams on Kennedy's Creek.

Attorney General Hays has decided that the Board of Trustees of the town, and not Governor Beckham, must fill the vacant Police Judgeship of Mt. Olivet.

The Spahr Pressed Brick Works will be the title of a new Maysville enterprise. The organization has not yet been perfected, but it is expected to be in the early spring.

Prof. T. A. Luman of Flemingsburg will probably be an applicant for Superintendent of Public Schools in this city—if the Board of Education decides to employ a Superintendent.

Until February 1st, 1904, with every $1 purchase, you get a ticket on an elegant Diamond Ring. We will also give tickets to those paying their accounts before February 1st.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.
The river is chock full of heavy Pittsburgh ice and with it may be seen coal barges, shanty boats and other wrecked river crafts passing down with it. Last night the river was rising at the rate of six inches an hour, but there is no danger, at this writing, of a flood.

MISSED HIS CUE

And Yoo Lee and His Bride Are Still Wandering in Ohio

For the past four weeks Yoo Lee the celestial laundryman has been wooing Mary Ellen Abrams, a Miss of between 14 and 15 summers, and who has been a familiar figure to those who had occasion to pass J. J. Wood & Son's corner. Together with her blind sister, who played on the violin and sang sacred songs, they were objects of the charitable.

Yoo having gained her consent to become his bride escorted her to the dry goods emporium of D. Hunt & Son where the modiste of the establishment fitted her out in a bridal trousseau worthy of the station she was soon to assume as Yoo's wife and head lady of the washing establishment.

A second street Jeweler was next visited where a $35 gold watch and other gewgaws added fresh charms and beauty to Yoo's enamored.

Thus diked out, Saturday afternoon they hied themselves to Ohio's virgin soil and continued their journey to West Union, the capital of Adams county. Before starting Yoo had been posted how to proceed. One of the most vital points was to inform the minions of the law that the young lady was a resident of the county. At the critical moment Yoo forgot his cue and instead of Adams gave Brown county as the place of residence.

Yoo's bad break was not unlike that of the sulky cow kicking the pail of milk over. He had made a stupid blunder and found it out when the County Clerk informed him that Georgetown was the haven of rest he was seeking.

At this point the seekers after connubial bliss were lost sight of and their wanderings in the wilderness are known to themselves alone, as phonetic connection with the pair was rung off Saturday night.

There has been considerable harsh talk against the Chinaman on the streets, but it's dollars to cents if they let him alone he will do a great deal better by her and she will fare better than in the miserable home she has heretofore shared with five others. He will not let her be an object of charity on the street corners, you can bet. Give the Chinaman a chance and stop your croaking.

The Fairgrounds having passed away, what's the matter with the Elks—those Hustlers from Hustlersville, Git-up-and-Git county, Git-thar-key,—having a Horse Show during the "Good Old Summer Time?"

SUIT TO BREAK WILL

Of Thornton Norris, Who Left An Estate of $100,000

Attorneys Salles & Slattery have filed suit to break the will of Thornton Norris, deceased, the bachelor farmer of Germantown who married at 85 years of age his young housekeeper, and died last year, devising to her his entire estate, valued at $100,000.

Dr. Charles W. Norris of Lexington and Commonwealth's Attorney Ed Daum of Brooksville are nephews, and will inherit one-fifth each if the will is broken.

This is one of the most important will cases to be contested in the Mason Circuit Court in many years.

THIS MORNING'S BLAZE

It Made a Wreck of Several Business Houses in Market Street

This morning between 12 and 1 o'clock fire was discovered in the frame structure in Market street occupied by Yoo Lee, the Chinese laundryman.

It soon spread to the adjoining buildings occupied by Jacob Cablish, the groceryman, P. W. Wheeler, the shoeman, and Ida Overstreet, restaurant.

Fortunately it was discovered before it had gained much headway, and notwithstanding the weather was intensely cold the good work of our ever faithful firemen prevented a fire of considerable dimensions.

Ringgold Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F., owned three of the buildings and were insured; Mr. Cablish had a $1,600 stock of groceries, almost an entire loss, with $800 insurance; Mr. Wheeler's loss on building and stock was about $300, with no insurance.

The building occupied as a restaurant was owned by the O'Keefe heirs and was insured for $300.

The Chinaman's loss will reach about $400, with no insurance.

There is considerable ugly talk on the street as to the origin of the fire, but it is best to wait investigation before making up your mind as to who is the dastardly person who set the Chinaman's laundry in flames. There can be no doubt as to its being a case of incendiarism, as the Chinaman is out of town and there was no fire about the premises all day yesterday.

Less than $1,000 will restore the buildings to their former states.

OUTSIDE PAUPERS

They Should Be Provided For in the City Almshouse

There are only six inmates at the City Almshouse at the present time. There should at least be twenty people in this eleemosynary institution were all the city's pensioners contained therein.

There is ample room for that number and the Matron and assistants can care for them just as easily as she does for the six.

The Almshouse is delightfully located. Being situated at a high altitude, it insures pure air and consequent good health, while the panoramic view that may be secured here is unsurpassed and most beautiful to behold. The management of the home is most considerate and humane, while the table is well provided for in a substantial manner.

There is no disgrace attached to one's poverty; it comes to us after the fashion of ill health; the rich man of today may be the pauper of tomorrow, then when old age, ill health and impotency comes to one why should they object so strenuously and decry the home so generously provided for them in their helpless and penniless condition.

It is to the credit and praise of any community that provides well and takes care of the poor they have in their midst.

It can be said of Maysville that she has never been niggardly in this matter. If any fault is to be found it is that she has been too lavish and generous in this regard.

In 1903 she spent $7,212.12 in taking care of the indigent. Of course the larger part of the amount is credited to smallpox cases, but even subtracting that from the total the amount remaining is quite a sum for a city the size of Maysville to spend on her poor.

Nearly one-fifth of the entire income was used for this purpose last year.

The gist of this entire article is that the city must concentrate these pensioners under one roof, and by doing so reduce the source of expenditures is now becoming almost a burden.

We do not mean for her to withdraw her generous hand in their support but merely to send them to the Almshouse where they can be better provided for and taken better care of at a less expense to the city.

What's In a Name?
Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. Mayor Fleischmann of Cincinnati makes his Policemen pay their bills. If they don't do it, he directs that the amount be deducted from their salary checks. That would be a good regulation in every city.

Bishop Thomas Underwood Dudley of Louisville died suddenly in New York Friday last from a stroke of apoplexy. He had gone to New York to the bedside of Mrs. Dudley's mother, who died Tuesday. Bishop Dudley was a native of Virginia, but had devoted twenty-nine years of his life to Episcopal Church work in Kentucky. He rose to the rank of Major in the Confederate Army, and since the War, apart from his Church work, had attained distinction as lecturer and writer.

Harbingers of Springs!

We now have on display in the window and store some handsome new fabrics for spring Shirt Waist Suits. Their name is a question. Originally made for men's fancy vests and called "Vestings," they were eventually used by stylish women for waists and called "Waistings." Now they are bought for the fashionable shirtwaist suits—and handsome suits couldn't be made from any cotton fabric, they are as attractive as wool goods treble the price. Some manufacturers call them "Cheviot Suitings," others call them "Nub Voiles"—but whatever the name, the fabrics are beautiful and the price—only 25c a yard.

THE BEE HIVE!

Taking Stock.

Yes, we are taking stock. Busy, of course, but always time to wait on our customers. Some people have an idea that taking stock is to find out if you have made money or lost any. Not so here. We know we have made money; too big a business not to have made any. We take stock because we want to know exactly what we have in the store. We go through every box, look under every counter, look in every corner, in fact, we go through every piece of goods in the store. We see a piece of Dress Goods marked $1.25, very good and pretty, still it didn't sell; it must go; price now 75c.

We found three pieces of White Oxford on the third floor; should have been shown last October; an oversight of course; but the oversight sells the goods for 25c instead of 50c; and so on through the house.

IT'S BARGAIN TIME NOW—Come every day. Ask any of the clerks to show you some of the goods we are cutting prices on. Probably the very thing you want is half price.

KINGS OF MERZ BROS. PROPS.

"It is the law of American politics that no man can make himself a candidate for President, and no man can prevent himself from being a candidate for President."

HON. JOHN W. YERKES has formally announced himself as a candidate for re-election as National Committeeman from Kentucky.

THE Weather Sharps have certainly had their innings. So far this winter they have invented more sorts of weather than the oldest inhabitant ever dreamed of. It is not extraordinary for the Ohio river to block and freeze over; but when it blocks and breaks and blocks again as often as four times a day, it's rather overdoing the thing.

THE Cincinnati Commercial Tribune hands out this hot tomale to the Great and Good TEDDY—

"It is surprising to those good people who are not familiar with Roosevelt tactics to behold a man who would not permit a Congressman to select a laborer in the Government Department without a Civil Service examination, who has posed for years as a purist and as one who would drive political influences and political bosses from all civic and public places, now striving with might and main to capture political conventions, appoint political delegates and have himself nominated by political bosses whom he has heretofore despised and denounced."

But of such is the kingdom of Teddy and Civil Service!

THE Frankfort correspondent of a Louisville paper remarks on the circumstance that "Governor BRADLEY, the only Republican Governor Kentucky ever had, and Governor PATTISON the only Democratic Governor Pennsylvania ever had," were both in Frankfort at the same time a few days ago. The circumstance would be unique—if it was true. But what does the ondent propose to do with Governor WILLIAM F. PACKER and Governor WILLIAM BIGLER of Pennsylvania. Both of these were Democrats of the most approved pattern—Governor BIGLER being a prominent member of the last National Democratic Convention held before the War—that at Charleston in 1860.

We have been requested by different parties to say something on the subject of Sunday work. This is a matter that will have to be worked out between the employer and his employee. The only way to stop Sunday work is for the employees to refuse to work on Sunday, and we are confident that the public will help them in the stand they take.—Cattlettsburg Press.

Are you quite sure that the "public," as you call it, isn't largely responsible for Sunday work? When the public will be content to stay at home or walk; when the public will agree to do without its Sunday paper and its Sunday ice and Sunday meat; when the public will agree to do without its mail and its gas and its electricity and its telegrams on Sunday;—when the public, in fact, will agree to go back to the good old times when it was a crime for a man to kiss his wife or eat a warm dinner on Sunday, then there may be some prospect of stopping Sunday work. Until then—never.

THE efforts of the Democratic papers to dispose of Governor BRADLEY would be amusing if they were not so silly. One day, he aspires to the place of Hon. JOHN W. YERKES, and wants to be National Committeeman for Kentucky; the next, he wants to go as a Roosevelt Delegate to the National Convention; then he is a candidate for Congress from the Louisville District; and next, he is being groomed for the Governor's race. But it has remained for the enterprising Louisville Times to land him on the Supreme Court Bench when Mr. Justice HARLAN retires. Not wishing to be outdone, THE LEDGER suggests the genial ex-Governor as the successor of King Edward VII. as High-Muck-a-Muck of Great Britain and War Paint of India. Seriously, however, Governor BRADLEY should be given anything he may ask at the hands of Kentucky Republicans; but he himself has said that he wants nothing save to be let alone in the practice of his profession.

THE Baltimore American, one of the ablest of Republican newspapers, calls attention to the fact that eight years ago the American people looked on MARK HANNA as a corruptionist, looking on him today as a statesman, possessing "the stuff" of which the ablest, the strongest and the best Americans are made," and concluding in these words:

"In yesterday's balloting at Columbus there is cause for every Republican in the land to feel proud, for no other party has, during the last eight years, produced a man of caliber to compare with that of the Senator from Ohio—the Grand Old Man of Republicanism."

And every Republican in the land unites in the sentiment!

PHILADELPHIA may be called "slow," but she has just introduced a fire-extinguishing service that leads the world. Located on Delaware avenue is a massive, simple structure, which contains nine enormous pumps that are able to send rushing through the fire mains 16,000,000 gallons of water a day. It generates power sufficient so squirt simultaneously four streams of water over the roof of the city's tallest building. It is able to mass together and discharge in a few seconds unheard-of floods—floods under which no fire on earth could live for half an hour. As yet uncompleted, it has reduced the insurance rate 15 cents on the $100, and two weeks hence, when it will be finished, the rate will fall 10 cents more. The system is a new thing—a great advance. It is as much of an advance, indeed, as a twenty-three-story skyscraper would be in a world that heretofore had only three and four-story buildings. The pumping capacity of this station is 10,500 gallons of water per minute. The pumping capacity of a fire engine is 250 gallons a minute. In the congested district, this gush of 10,500 gallons a minute will soon be at the disposal of every burning building. Is it, then, any wonder that the new station will render the fire engine, with its paltry 250 gallons a minute, an obsolete and useless thing?

An Old Veteran of the Civil War, writing to The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, has this to say of the soldier-feeling toward Mr. Roosevelt:

"In one of your late issues one T. L. POTTENGER of Sater, O., asks 'if it is not the custom to give a man a second term if he does even moderately well.' I claim the people have never given ROOSEVELT a first term, and could it have been possible to have peered into the future he never would have been in the second place on the ticket."

"The so-called bosses of the party considered HARRISON entitled to a second term against the protest of the rank and file, and the result is well known. HARRISON a candidate and HARRISON the President were two different men. When a candidate for the high office HARRISON said to a large body of the G. A. R. men who called upon him at his home in Indianapolis, 'the day is past when the rights to a liberal pension for the boys of '61 to '65 are to be weighed in apothecary scales,' but when he became President by thousands of G. A. R. votes he forgot his words and the 'rights' he so boasted of, but not so with the boys and their votes."

"ROOSEVELT, too, talks of the love he bears for the 'gallant soldiers of the Civil War,' and to him talk is cheap, and if nominated he will be made fully aware by the soldiers he has permitted to be turned down. That they will turn the Roosevelt electors down I fully believe. If he is nominated he will meet the fate given to HARRISON, to say nothing of the hundreds of thousands of Labor Union votes in the country."

"I have read every one of your editorials on the question of the candidacy of ROOSEVELT, and they one and all echo my sentiments, except the last paragraph of all of them, viz:

"If we are mistaken in this, and the members of the National Convention shall say our candidate is Roosevelt, then so say all of us."

"Not by a long shot, for under no consideration will I cast my vote for ROOSEVELT, and there will be thousands of other Republicans just like me."

"As the Democrats marvelously helped to the crushing defeat of TOM JOHNSON, so will the Republicans help swipe the earth with ROOSEVELT. Give us HANNA, HAY or TAFT and all will be well."

Political Pickings

"THIEVES FALL OUT."

Lexington Leader.

Campbell Cantrill's speech in the Senate sounds like an echo of his father's remarkable deliverance at Maysville in the Senatorial campaign two years ago, when he admonished the machine masters that but for his decisions on the Bench the Democrats then living in clover at Frankfort would be tramping the highways of the state looking for jobs.

This Maysville speech was denounced even by Democratic newspapers as undignified, if nothing worse, and was almost universally regarded as a public confession that the Bench had been prostituted to serve partisan ends.

And now comes Campbell Cantrill with the same complaint against the ungrateful hosts feeding at the public crib at the State Capital.

These two speeches have justified every accusation made by the Republicans of Kentucky that they were robbed under "forms of law" by the Democratic Courts of Kentucky, chief among which was that presided over by James E. Cantrill, father of J. Campbell Cantrill.

An old proverb suggests itself in this connection, but the application is not complete, because, unfortunately, when Democratic thieves fall out Republicans do not get their dues.

REVERSES JUDGE HARBESON

Court of Appeals Renders Opinion in Lewis County Cases

In the cases of the Vanceburg and Stouts Lane Turnpike Company vs. Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company; Vanceburg and Stouts Lane Turnpike Company vs. Bruce, etc., taken up from the Lewis Circuit Court, the Court of Appeals, Judge Hobson writing, has reversed the Lower Court. Judge Hobson's opinion is—

First—Turnpikes—Taxation—Where a turnpike company was created and by the act creating it there was levied on all species of property for the purpose of building it, a tax on all the property within the bounds of a certain taxing district, fifty cents upon each $100 of taxable property, and provided that the company might appoint an assessor to assess the property of individuals, and the County Court should appoint two commissioners to list the railroad property and that the County Judge was required to assess the property and report it to the company, persons paying taxes becoming stockholders of the company to the extent of the taxes paid, where appellee Bruce enjoined the collection of the tax on the ground that the act was unconstitutional, but after the assessment was made as indicated it should be by this Court, and this assessment was approved, upon a second appeal where the collection had again been enjoined both as to the individual taxpayers and to the railroad company, where property had been levied on under the assessment made under the charter instead of by the Assessor, held: That the opinion on the former appeal is conclusive and the question raised cannot again be considered.

Second—Same—Lease—Where a turnpike company, finding that it could not complete its road because of the suspension of a tax, leased the road to a county until it got in such financial condition as would enable it to finish the road, such lease was not a surrender of its franchise, the legal effect of such a lease being entirely different from the free turnpike act (Kentucky Statutes, Section 4745, Subsection 8) the road in this case not having been sold to the county.

Third—Same—Section 7, Article 4, of the Act of 1892, providing that the same rate of taxation which was levied on other real estate in any year should also be levied on railroad property, and there being no assessment on individual property previous to 1895, no tax can be collected from the railroad company for any year previous to 1895.

A. E. Cole & Son, W. C. Halbert and E. L. Worthington were Attorneys for appellant; W. M. Wadsworth and Wadsworth & Cochran for appellees.

GERMAN SYRUP.
We want to impress on our readers that Roschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specifics, such as pure tar, extracts of gum, etc., which have been so highly indorsed for the cure of coughs, colds, and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasms of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, heating and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectoration in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25c; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75c. At Henry W. Bay's Drugstore.

Colonel Daniel R. Collier, United States Pension Agent for Kentucky and former Collector of the Port at Louisville and Adjutant General of Kentucky, died suddenly Saturday afternoon of rheumatism of the heart, from which he had been suffering for eight years. The remains have been taken to his home at Lancaster. He was 64 years old and leaves two daughters and one son.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION.

NASHVILLE, TENN., January 18, 1904.

Dear Editor: Please allow me space in your paper to inform my friends with respect to the condition of my daughter Mayme. It is not necessary that I should review the "Walden fire calamity." My daughter was one of that number to jump from the window of the third floor of the burning building, and as a result received several face wounds and a broken leg. Since the time of the accident she has been cared for at Mercy Hospital, and is receiving the very best of treatment from the nurses, internes and Dr. R. F. Boyd. It looks as though she will be able to enter school in ten days more. I take this method to express my appreciation for the sympathy that so many of my friends have manifested in this our misfortune. Thanking the people of Maysville, and hoping to join them soon, I am yours gratefully,

Mrs. FLORENCE HARRIS.

You may differ from your neighbors in many important question of the day. Your opinions may coincide with those of the minority or those of the majority, and still you may be in doubt. But you can hardly be skeptical about the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills when you read such emphatic local indorsement as the following:

Mrs. J. B. Gibson of 113 West Fourth street says:

"The value of Doan's Kidney Pills is quickly made manifest by their use. I obtained them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and although my experience was not extensive it was because their curative powers were so quickly demonstrated that extended use was unnecessary. The quick relief from backache which was obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills causes me to recommend this valuable medicine whenever opportunity offers."

HON. J. F. STYRON

Cure of Deep-Seated Cough and a Dangerous Condition by Vinol.

Hundreds of people right here in Maysville are coughing, sneezing, shivering and trying all sorts of cough mixtures, old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions which only upset the stomach and fail to cure the condition.

Why waste time and remain miserable when we guarantee our delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. In contains every one of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work, and no sickening drugs. Vinol will cure that hard cold, hacking cough, throat or bronchial trouble, and if it fails we pay back your money.

The Hon. J. F. Styron of Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I suffered with a deep-seated cough which nothing seemed to help; my head was all stopped up, and my throat sore and irritated. My lungs ached all the time, and I had tried so many remedies without benefit that my stomach was all out of order, and food nauseated me. Vinol was recommended; I dreaded taking it, for I dislike cod liver oil, but to my surprise, the taste of the cod liver oil was disguised entirely; it is delicious, and soon it toned up my stomach, restored my appetite, cured my cough and made me feel like a new man. Vinol is a wonderful cod liver oil preparation, and it cures bronchial, lung and stomach troubles quicker than any remedy I ever heard of. I have recommended it to a great many people, and always with the best of results."

We wish every person in Maysville suffering from a hard cold, hacking cough, throat or bronchial troubles which have run down their system, would try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails. J. C. Pecor, Druggist.

The funeral of the late Bishop T. U. Dudley will take place Wednesday at Louisville.

The responsibility for the Troquois Theater fire is placed upon the management and builders in a report made to Mayor Harrison of Chicago by Fire Chief Musham.

Mr. Charles Catron and Mrs. Lash Beckett, both of Washington, hired a rig at Parker's stable yesterday and went to West Union, O., where they were married. The bride is said to be old enough to be the groom's mother.

BOARD OF TRADE

Addresses Itself to the Wide-Awake
Merchants of Maysville

MAYSVILLE, KY., January 8, 1904.

To the Merchants of Maysville—Dear Sirs: On Saturday, February 20th, 1904, we have our Fifth Annual Tobacco Fair. The four which we have held in the past have proven to be very successful. They have attracted to our city the best element of all the surrounding country and a large representation from some of the principal cities of this state and Ohio. It has not only been a day of social pleasure, but a day which has brought customers to our city who have thronged our stores and gone away laden with goods from our counters. You all say, by no means let the season pass without a Tobacco Fair.

The question arises at this point, how much of a success would the Tobacco Fair be if no one displayed any more energy or interest in its promotion than you are now doing? How many farmers have you spoken to with reference to it? How many posters have you sent out? And yet you expect it to be a success.

The Tobacco Fair is "Our Fair." This appeal is to you to go to work and do your part toward making the Fifth Annual Tobacco Fair the greatest event in the history of Maysville. Plan some novel feature by which to advertise your business. Arrange to give some souvenir of the occasion which may be carried away by the visitors as a pleasant reminder of the event. Send premium lists out in all your letters. Yours, for success,
JOHN DULEY,
President Board of Trade.

Cured After Suffering 10 Years.

R. F. Hare, Supt. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co., Middle-town, O., suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Spring is dry, many of them owing to the fact that the ground has been frozen almost constantly since the middle of November, consequently the abundance of snow, sleet and moderate rainfall has generally been removed from the surface by the periodic thaws that have intervened.

Keep your knife sharp, and any time from now until the first of March, trim your grape vines if the frost is out of the ground. Cut off all the laterals, leaving one bud. After the first of March the vine is liable to bleed. Will some one who knows tell me the best time to trim raspberries.

Like a Comet

This famous remedy does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

Mrs. Tillie Rees Worick's many friends will be so glad to know that little Wilson Buckler is improving and doing nicely.

Owing to the fact that Bishop Burton will meet the remains of Bishop Dudley and accompany them to Louisville where he will remain until after the funeral, the confirmation announced for tonight at the Episcopal Church has been postponed to an indefinite date, announcement of which will appear in THE LED-GER at the proper time.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days.
The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Protect Your Lungs

The lungs are a part of one's body that should be protected above all others, as they are the most sensitive. It matters little how much or how little outer clothing one wears, if their lungs are well protected they run little risk of contracting a cold. To protect yourself from the cold wear one of our

Chamois Lung Protectors

Our Lung Protectors are made of one piece of finest chamois and one piece of best felt. Other and cheaper makes are made of cheap chamois and red flannel and wear about half the winter. Ours are guaranteed to wear longer than any other make of the same price.
